Our Correspondents.

M. S. A. Notes.

The Primary and Intermediate departments opened this week with an enrollment of twenty two.

The thirty new pupils this week

bring our enrollment to 88.

Mr. Leo Hahn and Miss Willa

Alex entered school Tuesday.

J. R. Hahn and Riley Hahn

entered this week for the spring term.

Misses Lydia Upchurch, Edith

Reed, Maude Clippard and Ida

Williams enrolled Monday. We are glad to see all these young people.

Jesse Robertson called to see us

Monday.

ACADEMIE.

Pond Creek.

Plenty of snow, rain and mud.

H. A. Gregory visited relatives and friends on Pond creek last Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Kirklin has moved from our creek. G. C. Abernathy says he misses his neighbors very much.

George Smith has recently purchased a fine horse.

Ed Bodes is taking in a large newground.

J. W. Clubb is making everything new about his place. John has a new wife and wants everything in nice shape. That's right

John.

John Zimmerman had the misfortune to lose a fine mare recently.

Doc Pat West is clearing a big newground for Irvin Gibbs.

Success to THE PRESS and its

many readers. J. AND JOE BILL.

Buchanan.

We are enjoying good health and some bad weather.

Messrs. Frank and Daniel Corbin have gone to Indiana on business.

Mr. Spencer gave the young folks

a candy-breaking Saturday night, which they very much enjoyed.

The Buchanan school had their oratorical and elocutionary contest

at the A. O. U. W. hall last Thursday night. Miss Ethel Corbin won the gold medal.

Prof. James Kinder and Miss

Sue Reville closed a successful term of school here last Friday.

Mr. Kinder thinks of going to St.

Louis to engage in business. Miss Reville returned to her home at Lutesville Sunday.

Calvin Wagener has sold his farm to M. N. Furr.

Alfred Wagoner and Noah Hatfield contemplate going to Indian Territory.

Messrs. John Wiggins and Willie

Furr made a business trip to Luteville the first of the week.

JACK AND JILL.

Castor.

Seeing nothing in THE PRESS

from this part of the country, I will send you a few items.

Plenty of mud and rainy weather

Most of the farmers are making maple sugar and syrup. The season has been a good one for this industry.

Castor river has been very high preventing the mail from going on the Graydon and Glen Allen route.

Andrew Bailey still carries the mail. He is the best mail carrier

we ever had.

T. N. McKelvey and Miss Cora

Beal were married Sunday, March

1, Rev. Cunningham officiating.

Lois Whitener has gone into the poultry business.

Health is very good in this vicinity.

School has been out for two weeks and we are having vacation once more. Quite a number were present to enjoy the closing exercises and all report a good time.

Henry Stetley and Frank Albright both have ice houses full of ice. Guess we can keep cool next summer. A FLY-UP-THE-CHIMNEY.

Clippard.

Health is good in this vicinity.

We have been having some more rain, but probably we will get a few fair days now.

Prof. Odie Baker closed a successful term of school at Council

Ridge Friday. A nice program was rendered in the afternoon by the pupils, and Mr. Baker divided a nice lot of candy among the children, after which all bid him goodbye and departed for their homes.

Quite a number of patrons and friends were present and all enjoyed the day.

Alva Rosen has moved from

Whitewater to one of Franklin

Snyder's farms, south of Clippard.

Mrs. N. D. Hoffman visited at Clippard last Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Almon and children

visited her mother, Mrs. F. M. Sn-ider, last Thursday.

Miss Edith Reed closed a most successful term of school last Saturday, at the Moore schoolhouse, and left for Marble Hill to enter the Academy Monday. Miss Reed regrets to leave Clippard, but expects to be compensated in the move.

Miss Verna Morgan visited her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Poinsett, last Friday night.

As news is scarce we will close.

BLESS ERAS.

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Ashville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain

since. Sold by Chandler & Witmer,

Lutesville, and Dr. C. M. Witmer,

Marble Hill.

Leopold.

Health is good in this vicinity.

Henry Spooler is recovering from an attack of grippe.

Dr. J. M. Finney and Fannie

Manning had business in Lutesville recently.

We understand that our friend,

Ben Lubbers, has taken up lodging at bachelor's hall.

Miss Agnes, the accomplished daughter of A. Aeger, gave our young folks a corn popping last Tuesday night, and all seemed to enjoy themselves hugely.

Wm. Price, the good humored yard foreman of Malden, was up to see his family Sunday, and shook hands with friends as he passed through our village.

Arctadia where he will spend the coming summer.

Miss Annie Finney left for St.

Louis Sunday to select a stock of millinery. She will be back in a few days ready to trim spring hats.

John, the oldest son of Frank

Brands, went to St. Louis recently.

Prof. Geo. returned to his school last Wednesday morning after a few days visit to friends in St. Louis.

Fannie Manning left for St. Louis

the first of the week where he contemplates going to school.

John Macke was shaking hands with friends last Wednesday morning as he was leaving old Bollinger for a short time.

Miss Hannah Tenholder, assistant teacher at this place, was the guest of Miss Mary Twelman Sunday morning.

Mmanuel Manning seemed to be enjoying himself Sunday evening;

that's right Mmanuel, enjoy yourself

while young.

F. G. Clippard our hustling merchant has a fine car load of hogs ready for market.

Henry Tenholder Jr. has some attraction out in the southern end of our settlement.

August Thelo is repairing fence on his farm while the weather is
